

The school celebrated Basant Panchami to welcome the onset of spring season with great religious fervor and enthusiasm. The day began with 'Saraswati Vandana' sung by students invoking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati to seek knowledge and wisdom. To mark the occasion, one of the students shared the inspiring life of Hakikat Rai. On the auspicious day, the school witnessed vibrant atmosphere as the teachers were beautifully attired in shades of yellow. The chanting of mantras by the teachers at Havan made the atmosphere positive and the day ended on a festive note.
