

MY DELHI – CLEAN DELHI

April 23rd, 2010

S.R.D.A.V.Public School, Dayanand Vihar aspires to sensitize the students to make our surrounding clean and safe place to live in. in an effort to make our city Clean and Green, the Primary wing of our school participated in Sri Kriti – Megha Art Competition, organized by Art of living, Sri Kriti, Jal Board, NIE and UNICEF on 22nd April 2010.

The ‘drawing competition’ was organized on ‘Earth Day’ under Citizen’s Action Plan with the slogan ‘MERI DILLI MERI YAMUNA – Let’s move together’. Two volunteers of ‘The Art of Living supervised the entire competition in the school campus. The topic given was ‘Meri Dilli, Clean Delhi, Mere Sapno ki Dilli’. The students, first took the pledge which was read by the volunteers; and then started the competition.

All the drawing sheets were submitted to the volunteers and result is yet to be declared on the basis of ‘One Best out of Hundred’. Students took part in the competition whole – heartedly and gave their valuable contribution to the noble cause.

The Pledge

I Pledge to be a Clean Delhi warrior and will come out on 19th September 2010 along with my family to clean Delhi. I want ‘My’ Delhi to be Clean and beautiful, therefore I take responsibility of :

- Using the Dustbin and not Littering the public places.
- Using Paper/Cloth bags instead of polythene bags.
- Not disposing plastics and non-degradable material in the river Yamuna.
- Discouraging people from spitting in the public places.
- Creating awareness amongst others to ‘KEEP MERI DELHI CLEAN’.
